The Welkin Hall Residence is situated close to the University of Brighton's study site in Eastbourne, and is within easy reach of the town centre and seafront. The newly built residence is approximately 10-15 minutes' walk from St Giles Eastbourne and 15 minutes by foot from the town centre.

The residence is set in landscaped gardens with a gated entrance. All rooms are en-suite and are fully furnished.

The bedrooms are grouped into self contained flats. The flats have shared kitchens and communal areas. 6-8 students share fully-equipped kitchens with refrigerators, cookers, microwaves as well as cooking and eating utensils.

Fresh bed linen and towels are provided weekly.

Mead's Village is a ten minute walk from Welkin Hall and there you will find a local Tesco supermarket to buy food to cook with.

Welkin offers free wired internet connection. Cables for the internet will be available from reception for a £10 refundable deposit.

The residence has 24-hour security on-site.

NB. There are special arrangements for covering the University's cancellation fees. Our office will advise you at the time of booking.
