

LONDON

London is the capital of the UK, a big, vibrant city situated on the banks of the River Thames. It's not only the official capital, but also the unofficial capital of fashion, theatre, culture, education, business and style. With lots of famous sights to visit, this centre offers something for everyone.

Our London junior summer centre is located within the St Giles International London Central school. All bedrooms, classrooms, canteen and recreation space can all be found within minutes of each other on one compact site in the very heart of London.

St Giles Juniors London offers excellent learning and recreational facilities combined with an exciting activity programme, allowing students to experience everything London has to offer. It's perfect for those students looking for the London university experience in a supervised yet independent environment.
