While on the St Giles premises, or during activities or events hosted by St Giles, or in a St Giles homestay, students:

- must comply with all St Giles policies
- must treat all students, staff and homestay families with respect and must not engage in physically or verbally aggressive, threatening, harassing, discriminatory or otherwise offensive behaviour (this also pertains to social media)
- must not consume, possess or distribute alcohol, controlled or restricted substance or drugs. The only exceptions to this is if students are of a legal drinking or smoking age with proper identification and are consuming responsibly in an approved location.
- must not contravene any provision of the Criminal Code of Canada or any other federal, provincial, or municipal state or regulation.
