St Giles has an English-only policy. This applies to all areas of St Giles including bathrooms, hallways, the student cafe, etc. It also applies to St Giles-led social activities.

- We ask you to please speak only in English when you are in the school (except when you are videocalling or calling family or for emergency situations)
- If you have repeated warnings, you will need to speak to the Centre Director of the school
- If no effort is made to stop speaking your own language you may be asked to leave the school
